Our Basic Skills Programs serve adults through the following program areas:

- Adult Basic Education (<https://www.johnstoncc.edu/programs/basic-skills/adult-basic-education.aspx>) (pre-high school instruction)
- Adult Secondary Education/High School Equivalency (<https://www.johnstoncc.edu/programs/basic-skills/adult-secondary-education.aspx>) (high school instruction)
- English as a Second Language (<https://www.johnstoncc.edu/programs/basic-skills/english-as-a-second-language.aspx>)

Additional Information

- All Basic Skills classes are available at no cost to the student.
- Placement testing and orientation (<https://www.johnstoncc.edu/programs/basic-skills/placement-testing-and-orientation.aspx>) is required for entry into all Basic Skills programs.
- Students with intellectual disabilities are served in all of our programs based upon their assessment scores.
- Enrollment is open to those 18 and older. Learn more about underage participants. (<https://www.johnstoncc.edu/programs/basic-skills/information-for-underage-students.aspx>)
- Is there a business or church in your area that's interested in sponsoring a Basic Skills class? Basic Skills classes may be established at off-campus locations (15 students minimum).
