COMMUNITY/SELF-SUPPORTING PROGRAMS

Johnston Community College promotes several community service/self-supporting courses designed to meet the cultural, economic, and civic improvement of the community.

Courses are offered at the College campus and surrounding sites throughout the county. Courses and workshops are offered in various subject areas such as the following:

- Defensive Driving Programs
- Fine Arts
- Motorcycle Education
- Personal Wellness
- Taxidermy
- Beekeeping
- Youth Summer Enrichment Camps

Professional Development/Self Supporting Courses

Professional Development courses are short-term and specifically targeted at the general community. Individuals who wish to skill-up in their current professions or have a general interest in learning different topics should consider these courses. Topics include:

- Supervisor Training
- Public Speaking/Presentation Skills
- Computer Skills/Data Analysis
- Project Management
- Lean Six Sigma Certification
- Training Communication Skills
- Customer Service
- Notary Public Certification
- eNotary Certification

Please visit our Continuing Education webpage to learn more about our offerings and when they are available: https://www.johnstoncc.edu/continuing-education/index.aspx (https://www.johnstoncc.edu/continuing-education/)

Courses offered as self-supporting (course codes beginning in CSP or SEF) are not eligible for a refund as these programs are funded by registration fees collected.